Coaching Staff

Head Coach Bobby Sprowl

Former major league pitcher Bobby Sprowl returns to Shelton State after spending the past five years as pitching coach at the University of Alabama.

Sprowl coached at Shelton from 1986 until 1989 and compiled a 129-55 mark in four seasons. Under his guidance, Shelton made four straight trips to the Alabama Junior College State Tournament, finishing runner-up twice.

Sprowl enjoyed a fine college career at the University of Alabama, a second team All-American and consensus All-SEC pick in 1977. His 11.5 strikeouts per nine innings led the NCAA in 1977. Sprowl was recently named to the Crimson Tide's All-Century team.

After his playing days at Alabama, Sprowl enjoyed an eight year professional baseball career with the Boston Red Sox and Houston Astros. Sprowl, who was the number two pick of the Boston Red Sox in the June 1977 free agent draft, was a member of the 1978 team that lost a one game American League Eastern Division playoff to the New York Yankees on Bucky Dent's famous three-run homer over the Green Monster at Fenway

Park. On June 13, 1979, Bobby was traded to the Houston Astros. While a member of the Astros, Sprowl played on two Western Division Championship teams (1980 and 1981).

Sprowl has a 14-year-old son, Jon Mark. Bobby is married to the former Teresa Gibson, and the couple has one son, Trevor, 2.

Assistant Coach

Ben Short enters his first year as an assistant coach at Shelton State where he began his collegiate baseball career in 1988 under head coach Bobby Sprowl. After 2 good years at Shelton with a record of 12-6, Ben signed with the University of Alabama. While lettering 2 years at the University, Ben compiled a record of 10-3 with 16 saves. During his senior year, he was named a third team All American after leading the country with 14 saves which is also the single season school record. After his senior year at Alabama, Ben was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 14th round. Due to a shoulder injury, Ben's professional career prematurely ended after 4 good years as a closer in the Yankees' Organization.

Ben and his wife Tammy now live in Hueytown and are expecting their first child in May.

Russ graduated from Hueytown High School in 1987 where he was named to the All-County team. He attended Shelton State Community College in 1988 where he played for Coach Bobby Sprowl. While at Shelton, Russ played shortstop and was named to the All-Conference team. He batted .347 in 47 games with a team high 14 homeruns and drove in 46 runs. Following that year, Russ was drafted in the Major League Baseball draft by the New York Yankees. He was a 29th round selection. He now has played seven seasons with the Yankees and earned his first Major League call-up this past summer. With that, he becomes Shelton's first Major League product.

During the off-season, Russ lives in Hueytown with his wife Adryne and his son Jared.
